£740k for clinic in car park

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

PLANS to set up a temporary home for Haverhill's new health care clinic in a pub car park could cost more than £248,000 a year – plus running costs – the Weekly News can reveal.

While the final deal to build the extended-hours clinic is still being hammered out, the contract will run for up to three years, resulting in a possible overall cost of more than £740,000.

The clinic will be based behind the Rose and Crown pub, off Withersfield Road, while a permanent site is found and developed.

Planning permission has already been sought for the two-storey modular health centre. If given the green light, it is hoped work could start early next year and be completed within three months.

The Suffolk Primary Care

PCT reveals set-up cost of new health care site

Trust hosted a drop-in session in the town this week where local residents were invited to give their views on plans for the "pod-style" building.

Martin Royal, director of business development and external relations for NHS Suffolk, said: "The temporary building is expected to cost in the region of £248,000 each year, although these costs are still being negotiated with the provider."

"That estimated figure includes land rent and building hire, but not running costs."

"The contract for the temporary facility is for three years, giving our partners and us time to agree a permanent site for the purpose-built facility, appoint a preferred developer, secure planning permission, design and build it."

"We are in discussions with St Edmundsbury Borough Council to agree a permanent site. We will be formally meeting with the council in early 2009 to agree this important step."

Mr Royal also responded to concerns from retailers and shoppers that taking over the car park would reduce the number of valuable town centre parking spaces.

"Clearly, once the temporary facility is in place, it will displace a small number of short-term car parking spaces," he said.

"We are working with the borough and town council to ensure that alternative, local short-term parking is made available."

"This is in direct response to local consultation and events, where residents and businesses shared their concerns. We want to make sure we can operate the facility for the population of Haverhill and its surrounding villages in the best way, with the least possible impact."

Plans for the extended-hours clinic, the first of its kind in Suffolk, have been met with mixed reactions.

Cosy home for small friends

LADYBIRDS, lacewings and other insects will spend a cosy winter in Haverhill gardens this year thanks to youngsters who made their own insect houses.

A group of 21 youngsters, aged between three and 10, went along to Haverhill's East Town Park and walked around with park ranger Colin Jakes to see how wildlife in the park prepares for the cold weather.

Then they each made an insect house to take home and put in their own gardens, to give insects in the area a place to spend the winter.

Mr Jakes said the event was very well supported. "It was very successful. A lot of them brought siblings and parents along, so it was absolutely heaving down here.

"We also encouraged them to carry on feeding the birds right through to May, as the end of the winter can be the hardest part for birds."

The park will be packed for the annual Halloween trail this Friday night. Future activities in the park include a winter bird ringing demonstration on Sunday, November 9, from 9-11.30am. The cost is £2 adults, accompanied children free, with booking essential. For more information about this or other activities in the park, call (01284) 757067.

Sizzling donation from firefighters

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A WELL-SUPPORTED open day at Haverhill Fire Station produced a red hot £100 for the £40,000 Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal – and the same total for three other charities.

Ian Norris, fundraiser for the hospice, paid a visit to Haverhill Fire Station in Ehringshausen Way this week to collect the proceeds from the open day, held earlier this month to celebrate the station's 40th anniversary.

The cash was raised through various events on the day which saw firefighters mingle with former colleagues and those who had benefited from their services.

The crew said it was very grateful for the generous donations of raffle prizes from local businesses.

As well as the cash donated to our Hospice at Home Appeal – which will provide services for patients in the Haverhill area in their own homes – three other groups also received £100. They were the Fire Service Charity, the Haverhill Lions and the recently opened Haverhill Foodbank.

Paul Ricketts, watch manager at Haverhill Fire Station, said: "We felt the Hospice at Home Appeal was a very worthwhile cause. It was a very successful event and it was nice to involve the community in station life."

Mr Norris said: "Obviously we are all very proud of Haverhill Fire Station anyway and we were really pleased that they decided to support our appeal in this way."

■ Don't forget to visit a joint exhibition at Haverhill Arts Centre, which runs until this Saturday, celebrating the 25th anniversary of the Haverhill Family History Group and the 35th anniversary of the Haverhill and District Local History Group.

There will be a display of family trees, photographs and some items of interest from the past. Entry is free, but donations are invited for the appeal.

■ A chance to stock up on some festive goodies is offered at a Christmas Fair at Haverhill Methodist Church on Saturday, November 15, in aid of our appeal. The fair is organised by local hospice fundraisers and will be held in the hall next to the church in Camps Road, Haverhill, from 10.30am to 1pm.

There will be cakes on sale, along with Christmas gifts, cards, wrapping paper and much more.

■ Our appeal has so far raised an incredible £27,000 but we need your help to reach the magic £40,000 total. If you want to organise an event in aid of the appeal, let us know and we'll publicise it for you and help make it a success. Contact Jo Deeks at editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

For other ways to help, see the boxed text, right.

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An online donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Ron carries on with standard effort

STANDARD bearer Ron Pearson will complete a hat-trick of special appearances at the Royal Albert Hall Festival of Remembrance, carrying the Bomber Command standard.

Mr Pearson, 79, of Ickleton Place, Haverhill, has taken part in many national events. He last paraded the Bomber Command standard in 2001 and five years ago carried the standard of the Pathfinders' Association, made up of elite RAF wartime squadrons, for the last time before it was disbanded.

Mr Pearson, pictured right, said this year's event would be particularly special as it marks the 90th anniversary of the formation of the RAF and the 90th anniversary of the British Legion.

Thousands of people are set to attend the poignant event on Saturday, November 8, and millions more will watch it on television. It will be a busy weekend for Mr Pearson, who will travel down to London next Thursday, take part in rehearsals on Friday then arrive at the Albert Hall by 9am on the Saturday morning, ready for afternoon and evening performances. He will then return home in time to take part in the Remembrance Day Parade at West Wrating common.

Mr Pearson said: "I am more than pleased to be asked. It is a great honour, really is."

"It is not easy to get there, I will be there because of Marshall of the RAF, Sir Michael Beetham. He got in touch with the British Legion because it is the 90th anniversary of the RAF."

Mr Pearson was in the RAF Observer Corps for 22 years.

Hammer hit man 'lost it' in bedroom barge-in

AN IRISHMAN who got drunk on St Patrick's Day then drove to Haverhill to attack his estranged wife's lover with a hammer has been jailed.

Seamus Hackett, 34, had fled to his parents home at County Tipperary in the Republic of Ireland but was arrested there and extradited to the UK.

Hackett appeared for sentencing at Ipswich Crown Court after pleading guilty to a charge of assault, causing grievous bodily harm.

The court heard how Hackett, a father of four, had been drinking heavily in London on March 17 last year, then despite being disqualified from driving, got behind the wheel of a van and drove to the home of his wife Serena in Kirtling Place, Haverhill.

Peter Gair, prosecuting, said Hackett claimed to have been concerned for the welfare of his children who he feared had been left unattended, but in the preceding days had sent threatening text messages to Mark Shepherd, the man who Mrs Hackett had started having a relationship with.

Mrs Hackett told police she and her husband had parted in the previous autumn and since the attack on Mr Shepherd they had got divorced.

On the evening of St Patrick's Day, she and Mr Shepherd had also been out drinking, leaving her children in the care of a babysitter.

It was during the early hours of the following morning while Mrs Hackett and Mr Shepherd were in bed that Hackett, who let himself into the house through an unsecured patio door, burst into the bedroom and grabbed a hammer which was lying nearby.

Mr Shepherd said Hackett appeared to be a "man possessed". Hackett struck out with the hammer at Mr Shepherd's head.

He also punched Mr Shepherd several times around the face and head, before kicking him hard between the legs.

Hackett had told a probation officer: "I came home. I saw someone in bed with my wife. I lost it."

Mitigating, Joanne Eley, said at the time of the attack Hackett had still regarded the house in Haverhill to be his home. He had committed the offence while drunk and realised that he had a problem with alcohol, which he had taken steps to address.

"His behaviour was totally unacceptable. He is deeply ashamed. He saw red and should have left the property but unfortunately acted in a very violent way," Miss Eley said.

Judge David Goodin said Hackett's behaviour had been, in part, fuelled by alcohol but at the very least he had suspected that Mr Shepherd would be at the house.

He sentenced Hackett to 20 months in prison, which will be reduced by the 152 days he has already spent on remand.

■ BOUNCE AROUND . . . students got to try their hand at self defence, above, kangoo, right, and dancing, below.

Good sports try something new!

SOME strange new sports, dancing and self defence were on the timetable for students last week.

A range of activities were available to try during a Healthy School Day for Year 11 students at Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College in Haverhill.

On offer throughout the day were archery, self defence, dance, tchoukball, extreme golf and kangoo.

A spokesman said: "We were very grateful to the coaches who came in and gave the students new experiences, which was part of their Healthy School activities programme."

Stardom beckons for young singer

TEENAGER Dale Bennett has taken another step in his quest for fame by reaching the national finals of a talent contest.

The 16-year-old singer won his way through to the regional finals of the Idol 2008 contest to gain a place in the national finals in Portsmouth on November 29.

Dale, of Calford Drive, Haverhill, repeated his rendition of Mac The Knife, which got him through the first round at Bedford Corn Exchange.

Dale, who is studying music performance at West Suffolk College, could win up to £25,000 in prizes, including the chance to record an album if he impresses judges.

He was one of only two regional acts to go through to the national final, where he could be up against as many as 2,000 rivals.

Dale said: "I was really pleased to get through, the standard was really high. It was quite nerve-wracking until I got up there and started singing, then I was fine.

"We were told there will be a lot of stars there for the final and I think it will be televised. Singing is all I have ever wanted to do and I hope if I am successful I might get a recording contract."

PCT plan for clinic

■ From Page 1

While many people have welcomed the idea of extra health facilities for the town, critics say the clinic – which will be open from 8am to 8pm, seven days a week – will provide little that is not already offered by existing GP practices.

Some believe it could even threaten their viability by taking away their surgery's patients.

Doctors in the town had previously protested against PCT moves to cut up to £300,000 from their budgets over three years, supported by a 10,000-signature presented to Parliament.

Health chiefs maintain the loss of this funding was a separate issue to plans for the new clinic, but some claim the money would have been better spent extending existing facilities.

Darzi centres – named after Lord Darzi, the health minister who led an inquiry into the future of the NHS – are being set up with Government funding, with the aim of creating at least one in every PCT area in the country. The report said they should all be opened by 2010.

More information about the new clinic can be found by going to www.nhssuffolk.nhs.uk and clicking on 'Developments near you'. Comments on the plan should be sent to: Planning and Engineering Services, PO Box 122, St Edmunds House, Western Way, Bury St Edmunds IP33 3YS.

Campaign hopes to reduce deaths

BY Jack Grove

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

DRIVERS on one of Cambridgeshire's most dangerous roads are being urged to slow down as part of a new safety campaign.

The Slow Down, Stay Aware and Stay Alive campaign started on Monday and is calling on motorists on the A1307 to cut their speed on the notorious road.

It follows the deaths of David Bocking, 43, and his teenage sons, Daniel and Stephen, on the road in July – bringing the overall death toll to 28 in the past 10 years.

The campaign by Cambridgeshire County Council road safety chiefs will run for four weeks and will include warning messages on buses that travel along the route, as well as posters, advertisements on vans and the internet.

A radio advert will also be aired on local radio stations within Cambridgeshire, Suffolk and across the Eastern region.

Last month new warning notices were put along the A1307 from its border, near Haverhill, to the Four Ways roundabout, branding the road as a high casualty route.

Work has already started on a new safety scheme at Cardinals Green and a section of the road will see its speed limit reduced from 60mph to 50mph next month. A new safety camera has also been earmarked for the route.

■ STOP THE CARNAGE . . . Matt Bradney is promoting road safety initiatives on the A1307.

Cambridgeshire County Councillor Matt Bradney, cabinet member for growth and infrastructure, said: "When I took on my role I made reducing road accidents, especially on the A1307, a main priority for me and the council."

"This campaign is part of a series of initiatives I have brought forward to reduce death and injury on this road.

"It is designed to raise awareness of the fact that while the A1307 has seen a number of serious and fatal accidents, these are avoidable by driving safely, remaining alert, and within the maximum speed limit."

"All too often roads are blamed for collisions when drivers, and other road users, can prevent them occurring."

Slimy new playmates for children

SOME small, slimy visitors crawled their way into a playgroup to the delight of the children there.

Youngsters at the Stepping Stone Playgroup in Haverhill have been given two snails, which were born in July and are so far less than an inch long, but will grow up to be giant snails like their parents. A competition was held to name the snails and Cllr Les Ager, Haverhill town mayor, went along to hand over the prize of a book to the winner. He was three-year-old Archie Downes, who chose the names Marmalade and Marmite.

The popular group, which meets at Coups Primary School, has 52 children on its books and they were all invited to write down their chosen names, with staff picking the winners.

The snails were taken home for half term by three-year-old Joe Smith. They will then return as classroom pets and all the children will help care for them.

Watch out for purse thieves

SHOPPERS are being warned to keep their bags secure after more thefts of purses from shoppers in Haverhill's High Street.

Police are linking two thefts last Saturday, both from people browsing in shops, and asking shoppers to keep their bags secure at all times.

The first theft was at around 2.15pm when a purse was stolen from the top of a pram as the owner shopped.

A man was seen acting suspiciously in the store. He is described as white, in his teens with brown hair and a green eyebrow piercing.

The second theft was at around 3pm when a purse was stolen from a woman's handbag.

Last Thursday, between 2.15pm and 2.30pm, a purse was stolen from a woman's handbag as she browsed in a charity shop in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Calls in relation to these incidents should be made to Pc Stuart Cirket at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Don't delay sorting out debt issues, CAB warns

HAVERHILL'S Citizens' Advice Bureau (CAB) is helping people cope with the credit crunch by offering advice on tackling debts and also volunteering opportunities to enhance their job prospects.

Brigitte Haig, manager of the bureau, urged people to contact the CAB as soon as they experience financial problems, whether it is due to losing their job, benefit issues or generally failing to make ends meet.

She said: "After someone loses their job funds are not always immediately available and people can have difficulties coping with the system.

"We appeal to them to come to the CAB. Where people are not familiar with the procedure they may feel the problem will go away, when in fact it gets worse."

Mrs Haig also called for more volunteers. She said many people who started work as volunteers for the CAB gained skills which later led to full time employment, within the organisation itself or elsewhere.

"We have been very successful over the past few years in that our volunteers have found paid employment. So if anyone has lost their job, we can help them develop new skills which can help with a career change. They will learn computer skills, team work, identifying problems and solving them and working closely with people.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"We don't have enough people to fill all the skilled positions at the moment and we will provide training for people.

"Not everyone feels able to train as an adviser, but we also need people to give clerical support, such as filing and paperwork. Anybody would be welcome, they don't need to have any skills, just a commitment to the CAB and to helping people.

"All of our paid staff here started off as volunteers."

People needing help with debts can contact the bureau for advice on (01440) 704012 between 9.30am and 11am on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, or book an appointment.

For help with form filling call (01440) 762194 between 9.30am-3pm from Monday-Friday.

For face-to-face advice call into the bureau without an appointment on Monday and Friday between 11am-2pm and on Tuesday and Thursday between 11am-3pm.

Anyone interested in volunteering can call (01440) 763946 Monday to Thursday between 9.30 am and 3pm.

Guy is gone! Have you seen our Bert?

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

CHILDREN were heart-broken to discover that mean thieves had stolen the Hallowe'en guy they had made with their child-minders.

Husband and wife childminders Charis and Craig Newton care for 17 youngsters at various times at their home in Arrendene Road, Haverhill.

In preparation for a Hallowe'en party to be held for the excited youngsters this Friday, they had worked hard to create a special skeleton guy for the event.

Nicknamed Bert, it had been displayed on the sheltered bench at the front of the property.

But some time before the children arrived on Monday morning, the horrified couple discovered that Bert was gone.

Charis said: "All the children are really sad, they worked so hard to make Bert and painted the skeleton on to him."

"We were absolutely gutted when we discovered some rotten swine had taken him. How do you explain to a two-year-old that your guy has been stolen?"

"It is a real shame, I cannot understand why anyone would want to steal a guy. What possible use could he be to anyone?"

"Surely they are not that desperate for an old shirt and a pair of trousers."

"We made his with a skeleton because we had been talking about the human body with the children. We have reported it to the police, but he has probably been dumped somewhere. We just hope if someone finds him, that we might get him back."

Anyone who can help find Bert can phone Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or call the Newtons, anonymously if they choose, on (01440) 712734.

Coping with Bereavement

The caring approach to a sensitive subject

Death is a subject which very few people talk about, or prepare for, yet it is the most certain thing in life. We may take out "Life Insurance", but do we really know what to do when someone near to us dies and we are left to cope and make the necessary arrangements for their funeral?

If it is a relative or close friend, we may find that it is a very painful process, because the more we love and care for someone, the greater the pain. It is important however to have somebody who will share your grief and give you all the support you need. Even though it may be a close relative, or family friend, the fact you are sharing the grief will help you through the early days of bereavement.

If the death occurs at home then the first person to contact is the family doctor who will come to confirm the death. Once this has been confirmed, then the funeral director of your choice should be notified of your wishes. The majority of people would want to have their loved one taken from their home to the Funeral Director's Chapel of Rest where they would rest until the time of the funeral.

Although there is a booklet which will explain in greater detail what you have to do in the event of a death, you will find that the Funeral Director will explain everything you need to know and do, and what is applicable in your own individual circumstances. Whatever your religious wishes and customs, he can advise on such details as the simplest local Crematorium, to arranging for a loved one to be returned, perhaps to the country of their birth, anywhere in the world. The role of the Funeral Director has changed very little over the years. Many people still view him as the gentleman, dressed in black, with top hat, walking to the front of the funeral procession. This is still very true, but he also wants to be the 'personal friend' to the bereaved, one who you can turn to and confide in. No one can fully dispel the pain or grief, but like the clergyman, the Funeral Director can make the pain easier to bear.

Many Funeral Directors nowadays employ female staff who will actually help the families and make all the necessary arrangements on their behalf. Some people feel they can actually relate better to a lady and talk to her more freely.

Space does not allow us to go into all the aspects of bereavement, but a minister once used the following to illustrate it simply.

The ones you love the most are leaving port on a large ship for a voyage to a new home across the seas. The ship departs and you wave them goodbye. As you watch the ship go, it becomes smaller and smaller as it moves to the horizon, until it becomes but a 'speck', then disappears. Someone on the other side sees that 'speck' as it gets larger until it finally reaches its destination and is welcomed there.

Death is just a journey, a door through which we pass on our way to a new home, this we must all remember, particularly for those of us who have a firm and deep faith.

Special thanks to Mr Angus Willies DIP.F.D. for his help with editorial.

Driver yet to enter a plea

A PORSCHE driver charged with causing the death by dangerous driving of a woman from Haverhill has made his first appearance at Ipswich Crown Court – but has not yet entered a plea to the charge.

Rhodie Povey, 26, spoke only to confirm his name at the brief preliminary hearing last Thursday.

Judge Neil McKittrick told Povey, of High Street, Stansfield, that he would have to return to court on December 19 when he would be asked if he was guilty or not guilty.

He was granted bail until that hearing.

Povey is alleged to have caused the death of 44-year-old Jane Gatt, who lived in Cavendish Court, Haverhill, in a collision between his Porsche 944 sports car and her Citroen Saxo on the A143 near the Thurlow turning in May.

The collision, which

■ IN COURT ... Rhodie Povey appeared at Crown Court last week but will not enter a plea to a charge of death by dangerous driving until December.

resulted in the death of carer Mrs Gatt later in hospital, occurred half a mile south of Highpoint Prison.

Awards for Olympic heroes

PARALYMPIC wheelchair basketball player Caroline Maclean, from Haverhill, has been awarded a special memento on behalf of the people of Suffolk.

The presentation kicked off the 2008 Suffolk Sports Awards at Trinity Park, near Ipswich, organised by Suffolk County Council to recognise the achievements of local athletes who represented Team GB in Beijing and to acknowledge the inspiration their endeavours provided for the Suffolk community.

BY Jo Deeks

Unfortunately due to travelling and competition commitments, Caroline, along with fellow Olympic athlete Goldie Sayers, of Newmarket, was not able to accept her award from Lord Tollemache, Lord-Lieutenant of Suffolk.

Lord Tollemache spoke of "how proud Suffolk was of their achievements", and with all eyes now turning to the London 2012 Games, he said their collective performances would have inspired more young people to take part in sport.

A message from Ms Sayers, read out at the awards, said the Olympics had been "a very special time".

She said: "Coming fourth (in the javelin) gave me mixed emotions, especially being only 38cm away from a medal. However, breaking the British record and throwing a personal best in the Olympic final allowed me to feel like I could have done little more and I could step off the track pretty satisfied with my performance.

"I owe a lot to the county of Suffolk in providing me with the facilities to try out a number of sports from a young age.

"I still use West Suffolk Athletics Track to throw in and love the warm welcome that I receive every time I go there.

"With the support of the county and region as a whole, I am sure that I can bring home that elusive Olympic gold."

■ BIG EFFORT . . . top gardener Jamie Beavis with one of his winning entries. CP

Youngster squashes the rivals

YOUNG Jamie Beavis has proved his gardening credentials by winning Haverhill in Bloom's giant pumpkin contest for the second year running. Jamie, 12, from Shudy Camps, retained his crown after growing 11 whopping specimens in his garden, the largest of them weighing in at 20kg (42lb) - beating last year's winning 16kg (35lb) effort.

Now the Linton Village College pupil is hoping to make it a hat-trick next year but is giving his opponents a sporting chance by offering to give some of the seeds from his winning pumpkin to others, so that they can be planted for next year.

Jamie collected his prize at the recent autumn Gardeners' Market.

Ed Morton, from the Haverhill in Bloom committee, said the seeds will be given out at the next market day on Haverhill Recreation Ground next spring.

Remember to light up trees

A CHARITY shop is inviting people to buy a special light for their tree this Christmas in memory of someone they want to remember.

Sue Ryder Care is launching a new campaign at its shop in Jubilee Walk, Haverhill, offering Lights of Love in exchange for a donation to the charity, which helps care for those who are seriously ill.

June Biginton, manager at the shop, said: "It is the first time we have done it in Haverhill and we think it is a lovely idea."

Hospital hits targets for treatment

PATIENTS are benefiting from faster treatment than ever before, according to new figures released by West Suffolk Hospital.

They show that more people are waiting less than 18 weeks from referral to treatment at the Bury St Edmunds hospital.

The news means the hospital is hitting the NHS East of England-set target stating that no patient in the region should wait more than 18 weeks from referral to treatment by October. West Suffolk met the target in every speciality.

Gwen Nuttall, executive chief operating officer at the hospital, said: "We are delighted that we have hit this important target in every speciality."

"Our staff have worked extremely hard to achieve these great results, showing enormous commitment and dedication to find the best possible ways of working whilst still focusing on the patients' needs. As a result, our patients are receiving faster and better treatment than ever before.

"Although this is something we are all proud of, we will not become complacent and will continue to work hard to make sure we build on this year's success in the future."

NHS East of England set two targets – that 90 per cent of admitted patients and 95 per cent of non-admitted patients wait no longer than 18 weeks from GP referral to treatment.

West Suffolk hit the targets in many areas in August, but has now done so in all specialities.

The hospital has also met cancer waiting time targets by ensuring every patient is seen within 14 days of referral.

Ms Nuttall said: "We have looked very closely at every step of a patient's journey through the healthcare system locally and have found ways to make things easier and quicker."

Families facing a financial or emotional crisis can continue to put food on the table thanks to a new scheme launched in Haverhill.

Haverhill Churches Together has teamed up with the Trussell Trust to launch what is believed to be Suffolk's first Foodbank, providing meals for families and individuals who have fallen on hard times.

Henry Wilson, Haverhill Foodbank project manager, said: "It only takes a change in circumstances – for example a loss of a job, a benefits cut or a relationship break-up – to put families on the breadline.

"Some of these people are already struggling to make ends meet and either have to borrow money for food or go without. Here at the Haverhill Foodbank we will supply an individual or a family with food until other services or agencies become available."

The foodbank will be based at the Next Door coffee shop, next to the Methodist Church in Camps Road, Haverhill, and will operate using food collected at outlets such as supermarkets, churches and schools.

People can be referred to the Foodbank by care and support agencies, such as social services, health visitors and the Citizens' Advice Bureau. Once referred, people will be given a token which they can hand in at the foodbank in return for three days worth of food.

Havebury Housing Partnership is backing the scheme and its Community Investment Focus Group has donated £1,000 towards the project.

Havebury's investment group project liaison representative, said: "We are delighted to be backing this scheme, which is a real first in Suffolk. Often people tend to take having regular meals for granted, but for many families who have fallen on hard times this is not the case.

"We don't expect people in this day and age to go hungry but with the financial climate as it is now, I think that we will be having more and more people needing our help. The foodbank will provide a vital supply of food for those in short-term crisis until they are able to get back on their feet."

More than 12 million people in the UK live below the poverty line, including three million children. Many struggle to put food on the table and some simply go without.

The Trussell Trust, a Christian organisation based in Salisbury, has set up foodbanks throughout the country.

Haverhill Foodbank is happy to receive donations of non-perishable goods such as tinned and packet foods, dog food, nappies and toiletries at St Mary's Church on Friday and Saturday mornings, as well as at Next Door.

Deltech Europe, of Raymond Court, Piperell Way, has applied to St Edmundsbury Borough Council for consent to raise the roof of a plant room to make way for a 1.34m-high steel exhaust stack.

Plans to expand

PLANS for a single storey extension at a surgery in Boyden Close, Wickhambrook, have been re-submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council. The extension will be used to form a new seminar room. There will also be new vehicular access and the existing car park will be remodelled.

Town sign proposal

PLANS for a non-illuminated town sign with thatched covering at Nethergate Street, Clare, have been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council by Clare Parish Council.

Ladies give gift of shopping

YOUNG and older residents of Haverhill are set to benefit from a £250 donation to the town's volunteer centre. The cash, from the Haverhill Ladies Circle, was handed over at the centre's annual general meeting last week. It will be used to organise a Christmas shopping day for elderly people living in residential accommodation and fund the Youth Volunteering Project. Thirty people attended the annual meeting, where it was reported that it had been a very busy and productive year, with 111 new volunteers registering with the centre.

Four new members – Paul Donno, Rose Felloni, Lyn Burgess and Barbara Adshead – were voted onto the management committee.

Chris Briggs, chairman of the Haverhill Volunteer Centre, recognised Ron Hartley's commitment to the voluntary sector over the past years. He is taking a well-earned rest and will be missed by the many organisations he has been involved with.

For more information about the volunteer centre, or to sign up as a helper, phone (01440) 708444.

Legion hopes for a record Poppy Appeal

THE 2008 Poppy Appeal in Cambridgeshire has been launched and organisers hope to surpass last year's fundraising total of £400,000.

The launch was held on Saturday at the Lion Yard shopping centre in Cambridge, attended by Cllr Mike Dixon, Mayor of Cambridge.

Poppies were presented to Cllr Dixon, Cllr Saeed Akthar, the Mayor of Huntingdon, Cllr Tony Orgee, chairman of Cambridgeshire County Council and David Howarth MP.

The Royal British Legion's annual appeal will again highlight the importance of its work with serving and ex-service people and their families.

Organisers hope to raise more than the £30 million collected nationally in 2007.

BY Suzan Uzel

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Cllr Dixon, a long-standing legion supporter, said: "The Royal British Legion is campaigning to improve the difficult financial situation in which many older ex-servicemen and women find themselves.

"These people made huge sacrifices for their country, but many now survive on an income below the minimum level needed to have a healthy lifestyle. They deserve better and you can help."

Geoff Diplock, president of the legion in Cambridgeshire, said: "I'd like to thank all those who give generously to the appeal.

"Last year in Cambridgeshire we raised over £400,000 for our welfare work but our need for ongoing support is very important.

"It is your donations which make it possible for us to help serving and ex-service people and their families.

"Our research has shown over one million older veterans live in poverty and 40,000 families need our support.

"In addition, thousands of families have lost loved ones and there are over 900,000 ex-service people who have been injured in action."

Around 10.5 million serving and ex-service people and their families are eligible for poppy support, including grants, pensions and benefits advice, counselling, home and hospital visits and nursing care.

Poppies are on sale from shops and businesses.

Street collections in Cambridge will take place between Saturday and November 8 and anyone who wants to volunteer should call Mr Diplock on 0785 2330600.

■ LET THE APPEAL BEGIN... Catriona Armstrong presents Cllr Mike Dixon and other dignitaries with a poppy.

Pictures: David Johnson 517603.

Phil Collis, county manager for Cambridgeshire, said: "Poppy Appeal takes place in the two-week period running up to Remembrance Sunday when the nation pauses for a two-minute silence to remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

"This year is very special in that 11am on Tuesday, November 11, marks the 90th anniversary of the armistice, the moment the guns fell silent bringing the First World War to an end.

"We would ask everyone to participate in the two-minute silence."

■ MARCH... veterans stage a parade from the Corn Exchange to Lion Yard in Cambridge for the launch of the 2008 Poppy Appeal.

Music men, and women, hit new heights

If you are planning an event let us know. Call Jo Deeks on (01440) 703891, fax details to (01440) 761342 or email editorial@haverhill.co.uk www.weeklynews.co.uk

I AM still trying to stop myself humming Seventy Six Trombones after tapping my feet through Centre Stage Company's latest production of The Music Man. As a seasoned member of their audience I have come to expect a high standard of performance, in which I am seldom disappointed, but they still manage to spring at least one surprise every time they take to the stage. This time the surprise came in the form of company newcomer James Camp, taking on the title role and making it clear from the start that he was no novice to treading the boards.

Review: The Music Man By Jo Deeks

It would be easy to say that he stole the show, with a polished yet highly likeable performance, but more importantly he blended in well and enhanced the skills of other members of this talented group.

He may well be destined for higher things, but it is hoped he sticks around long enough to contribute to future shows.

Amy Letcher was in fine form as buttoned-up music teacher Marian Paroo, understandably swept off her feet by the handsome con-man Professor Harold Hill, using the River City townspeople's own prejudices to cheat them out of their money. In fine voice as ever, it was wonderful to hear her tones truly complemented by an equally strong male lead voice.

Characters abound in this group and Bernard Sipple's blustering Mayor was an ideal role for him, with the fine barbershop tones of Ian and Allan Davidson, Andy Letcher and Jim Morgan ideal for their roles. From young Matthew Organ as Winthrop to excellent Sue Almond as Mrs Paroo, everyone played their part in creating a rich tapestry of gifted performances, which seems to grow constantly. However, the real strength of the group is staging a rich mix of popular and more challenging work and adding its own new dimension to each. This is possible not just because of the swelling ranks of new talent, both young and older, but because of the solid base of stalwarts enabling it to grow. Fine musical direction from Karen Chinery, following in the footsteps of her father Les Ager, and another charming performance from his granddaughter Lauren Chinery bode well for the future.

Lots of Led, with a Twist, for arts centre audiences

BRILLIANTLY conjuring up London's foggy, fetid streets, Love and Madness, the company that brought local audiences Frankenstein and The Tempest, return to the Haverhill Arts Centre with their fast-moving adaptation of Oliver Twist.

Trapped in a cycle of poverty and crime, life looks bleak for orphan Oliver Twist. Remaining true to Dickens' novel, this adaptation will surprise those unfamiliar with the story and delight those who know it well. You want more? It's on Thursday, November 6, at 7.30pm.

■ Whole Lotta Led will be performing the same set that Led Zeppelin played at their 02 Arena show back in December 2007 when they play at the arts centre on Friday, November 7. Keeping the spirit and songs of the legendary Zep alive with their unique energy and stage presence, Whole Lotta Led play to more than 40,000 enthusiastic fans every year. They don't try to reproduce the classic Led Zeppelin look because for these guys it's all about the music.

■ MORE? YOU WANT MORE? ... Love and Madness present the tale of Oliver Twist at the arts centre next week.

■ Jackie O'Hare is the guest demonstrator for the Haverhill

Flower Club on Monday, November 3, at 7.30pm with Moose on the Loose.

■ The Duchess (12A), starring Charlotte Rampling, Ralph Fiennes and Kiera Knightley, is based on the bestselling biography by Amanda Foreman and is a compelling portrait of Georgiana, Duchess of Devonshire. From her doomed affair with Earl Grey to her complex ménage à trois with her husband and her best friend, this is a tale of fame, notoriety and the quest for love.

It screens at the arts centre on Monday, November 3, at 1.30pm and Tuesday, November 4, and Wednesday, November 5, at 7.45pm.

■ For more details about the shows, or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714140 or go to www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

Arise (Nov 1 - April)

You need to tackle tedious jobs that are beneath your skill set so you won't have a chance to use any expert knowledge you have at your fingertips. Resist the urge to complain, or people will think you're getting too big for your boots.

Call: Tamsam (Nov 1 - April)

Money from an investment, refund, or dividend may be late. You need a Plan B for covering bills or you might find yourself running into debt. If this is the case, you need to rein in your spending until you find another source of income.

To hear more call 0955 132 4857
Call: Tamsam (April - June)

It may be hard to see eye-to-eye with a close friend, lover, or colleague. You have very different attitudes about money. While you're to spend and enjoy it, yours is to spend and to save and invest it. Delay any buying decisions until next week.

To hear more call 0955 132 4857
Call: Tamsam (June - August)

You may not be feeling great, so take it easy. Tackling your regular workload will only get you down. Stop worrying that work and family will go to ruin without you. Somehow people will find a way to soldier on without you.

To hear more call 0955 132 4857
Call: Tamsam (August - October)

A creative block is driving you to distraction. Normally, you're brimming with good ideas but now it will take all your willpower to write a single paragraph or come up with a simple colour scheme. But persistence will pay off.

To hear more call 0955 132 4857
Call: Tamsam (October - November)

Trying to be kind to a relative in need is a waste of time. This person seems hell bent on pushing people away. Leave them to get on with it because an unreliable colleague is piling even more work on your plate. It may be best to talk to the boss.

To hear more call 0955 132 4857
Call: Tamsam (November - December)

Relations with neighbours or siblings could be a bit strained. These people seem to have no consideration for others. It will be better to tune them out than force a confrontation. You may be getting to resent a colleague who keeps calling in sick.

To hear more call 0955 132 4857
Call: Tamsam (December - January)

You may not have enough money to cover your expenses so you'll have to economise. Fortunately, you're very resourceful and know how to get maximum value for minimum cash. An impractical relative will cause your temper to flare.

To hear more call 0955 132 4857
Call: Tamsam (January - February)

Doing as you want isn't possible this week. You've got to defer to your boss and family. These responsibilities drive you crazy. Consider, though, all you would lose without these obligations. You're too sociable to do without people.

To hear more call 0955 132 4857
Call: Tamsam (February - March)

A charismatic leader is prompting people to do things that are totally out of character. Don't get caught up in a group or organisation or you could be implicated in things that run contrary to your own views and values.

To hear more call 0955 132 4857
Call: Tamsam (March - April)

A prospective employer may be leading you down the garden path. Take their promises of glittering prospects with a grain of salt. You're better off staying with a regular job than taking a chance on a position that may not even exist.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

WHO TO NOTIFY:

- ☐ Banks.
- ☐ Building Societies.
- ☐ Credit companies.
- ☐ Insurance companies.
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and Water Boards.
- ☐ Telephone company.
- ☐ Local Authority (Rating Department).
- ☐ Driving Licence authorities.
- ☐ Inland Revenue.
- ☐ Store cards and accounts.
- ☐ Other lease, hire or rental companies.
- ☐ Employer.
- ☐ Doctor.
- ☐ Dentist.
- ☐ Schools.
- ☐ Professional Bodies/Trade Unions.
- ☐ Motoring organisations.
- ☐ Newsagent.
- ☐ Friends and relatives.

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

Audi's A3 TDle a clever move

THE TDle comes in three or five-door form with the 103bhp 1.9-litre diesel unit, except in this installation it benefits from a few clever tweaks.

The engine's internals have been altered to reduce friction as have some of the ancillary units that run off it, thereby improving efficiency. The ratios in the five-speed manual gearbox have been revised too, while the outside gets low rolling resistance tyres and slicker aerodynamics, all the better to smooth its progress. These may be small detail changes, but they all add up.

62.7mpg is the headline figure, and if that's not impressive enough then the CO2 emissions of 119g/km should do the trick. That means that this compact premium car will cost you just £35 a year in road tax, so you have twice as many reasons to feel smug. And don't think that this comes at the price of the driving experience either; the TDle is no less relaxing to drive than any other A3 and the diesel unit has the torque and the flexibility you would expect. Stretch it and the A3 will sprint to 62mph in a respectable 11.4 seconds and on to 120mph, so there's no need to work hard to stay in the swim, but that would be missing the point a little.

Instead, tread the pedals carefully and make the most of what this car was designed to do. A gearshift indicator in the instrument panel tells you when it's best to change up for maximum economy, and once you get into the spirit of eco-driving, it's hard not to feel pleased with yourself for being so thrifty.

Even though the shape is almost a common sight, the A3 is still a handsome machine. With alloy wheels as standard and a recent range-wide refresh to smarten up the exterior still further, desirability comes as standard.

■ THE AUDI A3 TDle... a stylish diesel to grace the medium hatch sector.

The cabin is equally wonderful. Well designed, attractive, easy to use and clearly built to last. It's still an area where Audi is head and shoulders above the competition, and a crucial one given this is where you spend most of the time. The standard equipment isn't bad either, but if you want it's easy to go mad with the options and turn a premium hatchback into a prestige one. And given the savings you'll make on fuel, plus the fact that the TDle is no more expensive than the regular 1.9 TDI, why not?

Basically

The A3 is a thoroughly capable hatchback in all the boring ways: it has decent interior space, is easy to drive, see out of and has respectable economy.

At the same time it gives that premium feel and the sense of well-being that goes with it, as well as being a hoot to drive in the right conditions. It may not be the cheapest, but there's no doubt it offers a lot for the money.

MOTORING

THE onset of winter can be bad news for motorists. Little light, bad weather and worse roads conspire to make driving tiring, unpleasant and sometimes dangerous.

Every journey is an opportunity to prevent the worst from happening, and there is a great deal of preventative action that you can take before setting off:

- Make sure that the car has enough fuel
- Let someone know your intended movements
- Listen to traffic news and weather forecasts, and wear warm clothes

Naturally, the need for seasonal preparation also extends to the various systems that run the car, so make sure that the antifreeze in the car is fresh. Insufficient or 'old' anti-freeze can cause hose, water pump or other major units to fail leading to overheating. Anti-freeze should be changed every two years due to the deterioration of the corrosion inhibitors.

Other things to do include:

- Make sure battery is in good condition
- On cold mornings use a de-icer or scraper on windows – NEVER hot water
- Check that the screen wash is not clogged, that the level is topped up and that an additive is used to stop it freezing
- Check windscreen wipers for wear
- Make sure that all heaters and ventilation systems are working
- Give all external lights and mirrors a thorough clean
- Headlamps should be correctly aligned
- Tyre tread depth should be at least 1.6mm across the central three-quarters of the breadth of the tread and around the entire circumference, and there should be no cuts or cracks

- Spray damp inhibitor into the door locks to prevent seizing up

Once the car is ready for winter, you should make sure it is carrying emergency equipment in case the worst happens.

Useful supplies could include:

- Torch, spare batteries and bulbs
- Screen scraper/de-icer
- Jump leads
- Warning triangle
- First-aid kit
- 'Hands-free' mobile phone/phone card/cash
- Blankets and warm jacket/robust shoes (in case of breakdown)
- Shovel for snow
- Fire extinguisher
- Tow rope
- Road atlas, maps etc

Fog is still one of the most potent impediments to safe driving. Other culprits include rain, ice, sleet, and snow. All of these elements can lead to dangerous driving conditions so beware.

In the winter, speed can be your enemy, so winter driving means steady driving. Stopping distances double in the rain, and when roads are icy they can increase ten times.

You should always keep well back from the vehicle in front, but in the winter you should be sure to be even further back.

Essentially, safety in the winter comes down to four things:

- Check your car
- Be prepared for anything
- Be cautious
- Monitor your speed

If you try to follow these rules you should find yourself on the road to safe winter driving.

Stay safe during winter driving conditions

Stylish French coupes are set for UK launch in new year

THIS week, several weeks ahead of their official launch, the stunning new Renault Mégane Coupé and Laguna Coupé made their UK debut in London at the exclusive French Chamber of Commerce Business Club cocktail party.

More than 150 members and dignitaries will enjoy a convivial evening sponsored by Renault UK at the Royal Garden Hotel in Kensington. Fresh from their world unrollings at the Paris motor show, this will be the first time in the UK that the New Mégane Coupé and stunning Laguna Coupé will have been seen alongside the New Mégane Hatch. Sharing the stage will be a Renault C-Type. Built in 1900, it's one of the earliest cars from Renault UK's collection.

Roland Bouchara, Renault UK managing director, said: "Even from the early days, with such cars as the C-Type, Renault has produced innovative and stylish designs. These stunning new cars herald a new era of chic, French automotive beauty for us and I am delighted to be hosting the evening."

The New Mégane Hatch goes on sale on November 26 with the New Mégane Coupé and Laguna Coupé – priced from £20,995 to £27,995 – due in January.

■ THE NEW MEGANE COUPÉ... due to go on sale in January.

Wyatt nips in to nab late winner

Haverhill Rovers U16 4
Isleham U16 B 3

CAMBS & DIST COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 16C

ROVERS scored first through Pearson, who latched on to a through ball and slotted home.

After 20 minutes, Edwards finished neatly to make it 2-0.

Ten minutes before half time, a through ball from Young put Pearson through to score with ease.

The second half was a completely different story as Isleham came out, put Rovers on the back foot and made it 3-1.

It then became 3-2 as Isleham, with the bit between their teeth, pushed and pushed.

They soon got what they deserved – an equaliser with 10 minutes to go.

Rovers then woke up and thought they had scored the winner, but it was judged to be offside.

Fortunately for Rovers, Wyatt was on hand to slot home to give them the three points with a late winner.

West Wrattling U11 4
Haverhill Rovers U11 1

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

WRATTING found it hard to break the deadlock against a determined Rovers side.

Mo Horsley's pass finally found Charlie Ripp, who slotted home to make it 1-0 at half time.

Wrattling's defence and keeper of Ellis Wiffen, Josh Schiller and man-of-the-match

Jack Harvey were kept on their toes before Charlie Ellam scored to make it 2-0.

Rovers refused to give up and made it 2-1, but Wrattling were still in control, although nothing could be taken for granted. Ripp scored again to steady the nerves before Dion Whitrid notched to make it 4-1 to Wrattling.

Wilbraham Warriors U11 1
Grampian Gunners U11 3

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

WILBRAHAM took the lead from a corner just before the end of a scrappy first half.

The second half saw more pressure from Grampian as Josh Matthews levelled the scores with a neat finish.

Aaron Thorne then set up Jack Ferguson, who finished well to put the visitors in front.

Grampian made the game safe though when Matthews headed in his second.

Littleport Town U11 1
Haverhill Rovers U11 8

CAMBS & DIST COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 11C

ROVERS' nerves were soon settled when Paul Jenkinson smashed home a cracker from the corner of the area to open the scoring after five minutes.

Jack Trowbridge's fine display of attacking wing play was then rewarded with a first-half hat-trick.

Will Bailey came off the bench to complete the scoring for the first half.

The second half saw Littleport come more into the WRATTING'S opener was netted by Stevenson after a corner dropped well for him to slam the ball home.

Bush constantly created chances down the left before a free kick from man-of-the-match Sheath was launched to Bailey, who set up Lambert to score.

The second half opened up with passion for more. Ager showed strength in midfield, with Payne and Scotton maintaining composure and heading well to clear danger from the home keeper's long kicks.

Ankers scored Wrattling's third after taking a pass from Lambert, who then completed his brace to make it 4-0.

Keeper Millar had a quiet game, but he stayed focused at all times, clearing well on a few occasions as the ball was played back from his defence.

The final goal was set up by a run and cross from Foster, before the ball was whacked into his own net by a Bottisham defender. Foster then broke free and placed a thundering shot against the bar as the Wrattling forwards tried in vain to follow up.

match and reduce the arrears. Rovers' passing game was not to its usual standard and the game was turning into a midfield tussle before Bailey pounced for his second.

Tom Middle then fired home a great goal from the edge of the area, before Trowbridge completed the scoring with another great run before sliding the ball home.

Angel McCormack doubles up

DELAWARE made it three wins out of three in the league, maintaining their 100 per cent record with this comfortably away success.

A run from Sean McCormack led to the opener, as his shot was parried by the keeper and inadvertently put into his own net by a Melford defender.

Razors equalised 10 minutes later, before Mark Bailey hit a swerving, looping effort over the goalkeeper to put Angels back in front at the break.

Bailey again was on hand at the start of the second half to score his fourth of the season, converting a cross with a neat shot.

Substitute Darren Tharby added to Delaware's lead 15 minutes from time, as he accelerated past the Melford defensive line, beating the offside trap, to score his first goal for the club.

McCormack put the icing on the cake with a sweetly-taken volley from the edge of the area in the dying minutes to complete the 5-1 scoreline.

RUGBY UNION

Skipper William leads by example

HAVERHILL'S mini-midi section travelled to Witham on Sunday. In the under-sevens, team captain William Atherton showed great leadership in both games. In the first match, Jay Lamb scored two tries and Jack Simmons and Matthew Pask one apiece in a 4-4 draw.

The second match saw Adam Loveridge, Jay Lamb and Louie Burke each score a try in a 3-3 scoreline. The team's player of the day was Emily Murphy. The first match for the under-eights saw team captain Chelsea Portage score two tries in a 5-3

Haverhill win. Dean Cleary and player of the day Ashley Neeves were also among the scorers.

In the second game, Billy Notley scored two tries and Oliver Jury and Nathan Dabbs one each in a 4-2 success for the visitors. At under-nine, Haverhill started their season slowly, but showed determination to nearly snatch victory in the first encounter before going down 20-15 and 15-5 in a double-header. Witham fielded a combined U9 and 10s' team, whose experience was the deciding factor. Haverhill, however, showed significant factors to be built upon. Good tackling from Kit Browne and quick running from Alex Summers showed the way. Among Haverhill's scorers were Josh Kershaw and Alex Summers. Haverhill U12 beat their Witham counterparts 26-7. After two previous close encounters this season, Haverhill finally rose to the occasion and secured a comprehensive victory. Aided by some of the U11 squad in the back division, the Haverhill forwards proved too strong for Witham, with fly-half George Fryer crossing for four tries.

TENNIS

Tournament joy for Jones and Bagley

Haverhill Tennis Club held their last tournament of the autumn term. The 12 and under Grade 5 super series event was supported by Tennis East and attracted players from Cambridgeshire, Essex and Suffolk.

In the girls' event Christie Roberts put up a spirited display to beat Poppy Philipps 4-2, 2-4, 10-8 in the third set championship tie-break, to set up another battle with fellow Haverhill player Harriet Patrick.

Patrick outplayed Roberts 4-1, 4-0 to win the semi-final.

In the other semi-final, Alexandra Jones was too strong for the younger Hannah Gunn, who played with great fighting spirit – and blisters – all day.

Jones, who had dropped only two games in reaching the final, defeated Patrick 4-0, 4-1 to round off a great day for her.

In the third/fourth play-off Roberts finally ended Gunn's good run in a closely-fought match, which finished under floodlights.

The boys' event was a very close tournament with four matches going to a third set, including the final.

In the first semi-final Callum Bagley beat Kane Smith 4-1, 4-0.

The second semi, between Eddie Hurren and Ben Coleman, was a very tight match with some great tennis.

In the third set, Coleman finally got the better of his opponent to win 10-7, avenging their previous week's result.

This set up a great final with Bagley, who took the first set 4-2, before Coleman fought back in the second, also taking it 4-2. In a nail-biting third set championship tie-break both boys had a chance to win, but Bagley finally prevailed 11-9.

In the third/fourth play-off match Smith played some of his best tennis and battled with Hurren for every point, before the latter eventually won 4-2, 4-0.

Haverhill TC spokesman Robert Jelfs said: "It was lovely to see the children not only playing some great tennis, but also playing in a sporting and friendly manner."

"They were all a credit to their parents and coaches."

SWIMMING

Stefanie seals second place

STEFANIE Biller confirmed her runners-up spot in the Open Water Grand Prix Series with a fourth-place finish in the final race of the season in Mexico.

The Haverhill-based swimmer was too far adrift to catch overall winner Natalya Pankina, of Russia, going into the last round at Sumidero.

But Biller, who swims for West Suffolk, did enough to hang on to second place after finishing just outside the podium in a 15km race won by German compatriot Britta Kamrau in 3hr 18min 25sec.

Coach Alan Bircher was delighted with Biller's success after playing catch-up after missing the start of the campaign. He said: "Stefanie didn't do the first three races in Argentina and the Russian won all of them, so the aim was always for second place overall."

"She only finished 11 points behind her, so it was fairly tight at the top. One of the girls said she saw a crocodile at the beginning of the race and Steffi said she probably wouldn't have got in if she'd known it was there."

RUGBY UNION

Bergin's troops feel the pain . . .

INJURIES struck Haverhill as they lost 33-0 at Southwold in Division Two of the Eastern Counties League on Saturday.

They were forced to reshuffle their front row before the match after the withdrawal of two props, and then, as the game wore on, they were suffering more problems, ending the match with 13 men after five players were forced off.

Skipper Paul Bergin said: "It was one of those games where things didn't go for us."

"We had a tough old day and finished with 13 players after using up all our subs, but beyond that, we didn't play very well."

FOOTBALL: LATEST NEWS FROM HAMLET CROFT

Sam's goal nets share of spoils

STRUGGLING Haverhill Rovers enjoyed a mixed week as they looked to pull away from the foot of the Ridgeons League, Premier Division.

On Saturday, they picked up a point when they entertained Tiptree at Hamlet Croft, but they suffered a home defeat to Stanway on Tuesday.

Against Tiptree, Sam Holmes was on target for Haverhill as they clinched a useful 1-1 draw. After a goalless first half, Holmes edged Rovers in front, only for Tiptree to grab an equaliser from the spot after keeper Ed Campbell was adjudged to have fouled a Tiptree attacker in the box.

Paul Jenkin went close with a header and Gareth Thomas had a shot blocked, but the hosts could not find a winner.

Manager Neil Farlie said: "Considering we are where we are, and in the budget and resources they've got compared to us, it's a great result."

"We showed great character and being as I was at Tiptree years ago, it was nice to get something against them."

Mark Abbott was on target as Haverhill suffered a 3-1 defeat against Stanway.

Rovers took the advantage on 17 minutes with Abbott's left-wing cross flying in for the opener after Martin Westcott deceived the defence by feigning to head home. Stanway got back on terms soon after before adding two more goals in the second half.

■ Rovers are in league action on Saturday when they face a tough trip to Leiston to take on a side who have been buoyed up by this week's FA Cup victory over Blue Square Premier Lewes.

On Tuesday evening, Rovers are scheduled to entertain Histon reserves at Hamlet Croft.
